Eumundi Markets

Website: <https://www.visitsunshinecoast.com/Operators/Eumundi-Markets>

The Eumundi Market is Australia's biggest and best art, craft and produce market, held every Saturday and Wednesday of the year (rain, hail or shine) in the heart of the charming historic hinterland town of Eumundi. Established back in 1979, the world-renowned Eumundi Markets is like an outdoor gallery, with towering heritage listed fig trees rising above the 500 plus stalls. The market's policy of 'make it, bake it, sew it or grow it' ensures quality products and the very best of locally produced goods. You will discover original artworks, sculptures, and furniture, handmade toys, homewares, and skincare, cutting edge fashion and jewellery by local designers, as well as fresh local produce and fabulous food to enjoy while you explore Eumundi. There is always a stellar line-up of world-class musicians and talented street performers, as well as face painters, and alternative therapists offering massages, palm readings and more.

Queensland Air Museum

0 stars From $0 AUD (Australian Dollars)

The Queensland Air Museum has a fascinating collection of aviation history to explore. Well worth a visit when you're next in Caloundra.

The Queensland Air Museum, located at Caloundra on the beautiful Sunshine Coast, is Australia's largest Heritage Air Museum. Established in 1974 and operated entirely by volunteers, boasts a display of more than 65 restored aircraft from many decades including an F-111 C A8-129 and many other aviation related displays. Their Vision is 'Preserving Australia's Aviation Heritage'. They are open to the public every day (except Christmas Day) from 10am to 4pm and can open by arrangement outside those hours for special functions and events. They operate Group Tours, are an ideal venue for Children's Birthday parties and Photo Shoots and they are keen to make their fantastic display as available to the public as possible. They operate three Aero Engine Run Days each year in January, April and September and host an Open Cockpit Weekend in July. They encourage the involvement of new members and volunteers. Please refer to their web site for member and volunteer information.
