

Gigantic Wallaby Airlines Raffle.

1st Prize.

Here's your chance to own a true collector's timepiece. The Airfield watch, which contains parts of Caribou A4-208, looks to the future and takes inspiration from the cornerstone of the RAAF centenary celebrations. Designed by Australian watch company Bausele, in collaboration with the Air Force Centenary team, the watch is a Swiss made automatic loaded with many unique and high-end features, making it a true collector's item.

Valued at $500, this limited edition time-piece could be yours for only $10.00

Only 500 of these magnificent watches were made, this one is number 203 and comes with a certificate of authenticity.

2nd Prize

Second prize is this magnificent blanket, which some say is worth thousands of dollars. If you win this luxurious item you can be assured you will have a unique and much sought after item.

3rd Prize.

Third prize is another magnificent blanket. Winners of this wonderful item can be assured they will own an exclusive, one only, practically price-less comfort item.

Tickets cost only $10 each, and we're only selling 200 of them. You can buy one or the whole 200 by remitting your funds to the account below, put your name in the comments section of the bank transfer then please follow this up by sending an email to wallabysam14@gmail.com telling us your name, address and phone number.
