Dear Mr Policeman or Woman, as the case may be:

I would like you to know that those rascals, Thai Dang and Diamond Tran, might try and sneak into the Jade Buddha on ANZAC Day.

If you see them or come across them, apprehend them instantly and bung them in the lockup.

These rascals have been known to sing and dance on our holiest of holy days and being the good citizens that we are, we can't have such frivolity happening.

Thank you for keeping the world safe.

Your servant.
